ACTIVE ASSAILANT

Active Assailant incidents are on the rise - last year in the US there were 435* incidents.

Their impact is far-reaching and often enduring for the affected individuals, their families, their communities and their institution or organization.

The consequences are extreme ranging from fatal through life-changing injuries to lasting mental health issues. You cannot predict when they will occur, but you can be ready and prepared for when they do occur.

Ambrey provides the expertise and reassurance to ensure that you are prepared and ready for the worst.
